PART II. ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND GOALS

SUBMIT TWO VERSIONS—ONE WITH YOUR NAME ON EACH PAGE AND ONE WITHOUT YOUR NAME VISIBLE ANYWHERE IN THE DOCUMENTS.

A. Please summarize any high school activities or organizations in which you participated and describe your role in them. Describe any involvement with a local event, organization or activity over the past four years in which you demonstrated strong leadership skills, entrepreneurial spirit, or civic mindedness. List any offices held, particularly highlighting those with community involvement and provide detail of any community activities you participated in while attending high school. Also include any awards, honors, or recognitions you received in the last four years, particularly highlighting those with community involvement. (You may attach a resume to answer this section as well as additional documentation as appropriate and necessary.) Finally, briefly describe your plans after graduation and your future goals.

PART III. WRITTEN ADDRESS OR “SPEECH”

Imagine you are the keynote speaker at a Townhall meeting and your mission is to get the people of Nanuet excited about their new town slogan, “Small Town, Big Heart.” Your mission is to explain how this slogan specifically applies to Nanuet, how it can inspire us to achieve great things as a community, and should include some of your ideas for using the slogan to promote Nanuet as a great place to live and prosper. “Deliver” that speech in writing.

Your “Speech” should be typed and approximately two pages or 500 words. It should have a title (centered) that is apropos of your content.

Staple the pages of each copy together in the upper left-hand corner.

PART IV. LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Attach one letter of recommendation from a teacher, counselor, coach or other school official, or an individual outside of school who is familiar with your accomplishments and/or involvement in the community.
